OBJECTS AND REASONS

Part II of the Bill proposes to amend the principal Act by introducing new sources of revenue. This is in line with the constitution the fourth schedule that devolved functions to the county thus mandating it to offer services with respect to the functions thus the respective fees and charges.

Part IV is amended to add a new measure that can be used to ensure that revenue is conveniently remitted by use mobile cash payments.

Part VIII is amended by adding one other way that can be used by the County to avoid evading of payment of the county revenue, by categorization of business into small, medium and large will ensure equity and fairness as envisaged by the constitution.
