DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND ECONOMIC PLANNING

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN PREPARATION OF THE NAKURU COUNTY INTEGRATED DEVELOPMENT PLAN (CIDP 2018-2022)

The Nakuru County Integrated Development Plan (CIDP 2018-2022) is being prepared pursuant to Part XI of the County Government Act 2012 to guide in County integrated development planning over the next medium term period. The County Government of Nakuru therefore invites Members of the Public, Private Sector Representatives, Local Civil Society Organizations, and other interested persons to its public consultation forums in further compliance with Constitutional provisions in public policy formulation processes.

The focus of the next CIDP 2018-2022 as guided by the national development agenda outlined in the 3rd Medium Term Plan (2018-2022) shall among other entail the following;

- i. Carrying forward and completing the Programmes initiated during the 1st CIDP 2013-2017;
- ii. Outlining policies, strategies, Programmes/projects aimed at achieving the relevant Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in all sectoral areas;
- iii. Emphasis on improving governance and accountability, deepening the delivery of County public good and services;
- iv. Mainstreaming Climate Change, HIV/AIDs, Gender, Youth, Disaster Risk Reduction and other cross cutting issues into County development strategies and plans;
- v. Putting in place measures to facilitate faster growth of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises;
- vi. Prioritize the development of both social and physical infrastructure;
- vii. Promotion of value addition for agricultural produce, food security and environmental conservation;
- viii. Continued Promotion of equitable social economic development for county stability.

These forums will deliberate on the proposed programmes/projects based on the above thematic areas to be implemented by Nakuru County Government over the next five years in order to address current social economic challenges and improve citizens' social economic well-being. The consultative forums shall be held across all 55 Wards in Nakuru County between Monday 19th and Friday 23rd February 2018. Detailed schedules for the planned public participation meetings are available at the respective Sub County/Ward offices and may also be downloaded from the Nakuru County Website <http://www.nakuru.go.ke>. Written memoranda may be forwarded to the County Department of Finance and Economic Planning (Email; countyplanning@nakuru.go.ke) or to any of the Sub County Offices in Nakuru on or before Friday 23rd February 2018.
